Denver, CO

303-770-2822

mtaylor@cwa-union.org

Support – Patti Flynn, confidential secretary

Assignments:

Manages and directs the overall activities of the District, personnel and budget.

Under CWA's Constitution, geographical District 7 Vice President is responsible for:

All Appeals –including Grievances/Arbitrations

Article 7 – Officers and Their Duties;

Section 5 – Vice Presidents – District, Communications and Technologies, and Telecommunications shall:

- (a) Appoint members of the bargaining committees in bargaining units to fill vacancies that may occur and that are not otherwise filled; and to appoint bargaining committees for bargaining units who have failed to select bargaining committees under the provisions of this Constitution;
- (b) Supervise the negotiations of contracts and approve or authorize the approval of such contracts in accordance with Executive Board direction;
- (c) Designate when necessary one or more Union representatives to assist in the negotiation of each contract negotiated;
- (d) Designate when necessary one or more Union representatives to process grievances above the Local level.

Article 13 – Locals

Section 4 – Jurisdiction Disputes

- (a) In jurisdictional disputes between Locals the District Vice President will make every reasonable effort to obtain an agreement among the involved Locals. If no agreement can be reached the matter will be resolved by the following procedure
 - 1. Upon agreement of the Locals involved, an election shall be conducted in accordance with rules and procedures adopted by the Executive Board and shall be conducted under the supervision of the District Vice President
 - 2. If the Locals will not agree to an election, the dispute shall be referred to an independent referee appointed by the Executive Board and approved by the Convention.....

Article 14 – Councils

Section 1 – State and City Councils

- (a) State Councils may be established under the direction of the Vice President(s) in all states where the Union has a significant presence as determined by the Executive Board.
- (b) In cities where there is more than one chartered Local, Councils may be established under the direction of the Vice President of the geographical District.

Article 15 - Elections

Section 4 – General Provisions

- (c) Any challenge to the conduct of an election must be filed in writing with the election committee within 10 days of the tentative certification of the results. The election committee shall rule on any such challenge and shall within 20 days of the tentative certification of the results make a final determination or certification. Such determination or certification shall be subject to the right of appeal to the governing body and to the membership of the Local. Any appellant must exhaust the remedies available within this section. If the appellant has attempted to exhaust such remedies without obtaining a final decision within 60 days of the tentative certification of the results, the appellant shall have the right to file an appeal with the appropriate geographical Vice President. Such an appeal shall be filed within 70 days of the tentative certification of the results.

Article 18 – Strikes

Section 2 - Notification

After a strike vote has been taken by a Local or groups of Locals in a District and a strike is imminent, the Vice President shall notify the President of the Union in writing.

Section 6 – Procedure for a Local Strike Vote

(e) Copies of the result of strike vote shall be sent to the Vice President and to the President of the Union.

Internal Appeals Procedures

I. Complaints against the Local, its officers or governing body

B. Consideration of the complaint.

1. [second paragraph, second sentence] Complaints filed directly with the President may be referred by the President to the appropriate geographical Vice President for handling under the provisions of Section I (C) (2) of these Appeals Procedures or in the discretion of the President retained for handling under Section II (B) (1) of these Appeals Procedures.

In those cases where CWA Staff notifies a member that they will not be pursuing the discipline grievance filed on behalf to arbitration, the member has the right to appeal that decision to the Vice President. If the Vice President turns down that appeal:

III. Arbitration Complaints

In the event a Vice President determines not to arbitrate a grievance, either the Local or the grievant(s) may file a complaint.

In cases where either the Local or the National Union settles a grievance, the grievant will have no further right to appeal pursuant to these appeals procedures.

Programs

While the District Vice President has overall responsibility to promote awareness and encourage full Local participation in all of CWA's Programs, the Vice President will monitor the District's efforts on behalf of Pediatric Aids and Union to Union
